PIANO DUO TO PERFORM HERE THURSDAY

"FOUR HANDS DANCING" - a program of music by American composers, will be performed by the KANTORSKI-POPE PIANO DUO on Thursday, January 26 at noon in the Reed Hall Auditorium. The program will include a medley of waltzes by Richard Rodgers, "Danzon Cubano" by Aaron Copland, the "Gazebo Dances" by contemporary composer John Corigliano, and the always popular "American in Paris" by George Gershwin. Valrie Kantorski and Ann Pope are members of the Bowling Green State University Creative Arts Program. Ms. Kantorski is the pianist for the Toledo Symphony Orchestra and Ms. Pope is a popular arranger and soloist.

IN MEMORIAM

The Campus family extends sympathy to the family of Amber Paxton, who passed away on Sunday, January 15. Amber's mother is Julie Paxton, of the Ohio State Admissions Office and her grandmother is Judy Shaw, of the LTC Human Resources Office. Anyone wanting to make a memorial donation is asked to contribute to the St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital or St. Rita's Hospice Program.

We also extend sympathy to the family of Jay Wehner, nephew of Joyce McCluer of the LTC Registrar's office. Memorial donations should be made to COTA for Jay, at Bank One.

WELLNESS FAIR TO BE HELD TUESDAY

Start the New Year out with a healthier you! The LTC Health Divisions and the campus Student Activities department are committed to getting you started in the right direction! Come to the WELLNESS FAIR on Tuesday, January 24 in the Atrium of the Public Services Building between 11-1. You can have your blood pressure taken, your posture assessed, measure your exercise tolerance and check on your blood oxygen. The LTC Dental Hygiene Division is offering a "toothbrush trade-in." Bring in your old toothbrush (one to a customer) and receive a new one FREE of charge. They will also demonstrate proper brushing and flossing techniques. There will be FREE, healthy refreshments and lots of information and handouts that will help answer your health questions. Take advantage of this opportunity to find out more about YOU!
